Dance, sing, all peoples of the world!

Editorial

LET US DANCE LIFE

To be open to life... To celebrate life!

Dance facilitates this celebration; its inner dynamics graciously evolve into a close relationship between spirit and body. Through the impulse of the spirit, the body becomes a marvelously docile instrument. By a supple gesture, moving and inspiring, dance expresses with sensitivity a homage, a prayer to the Creator. It becomes celebration.

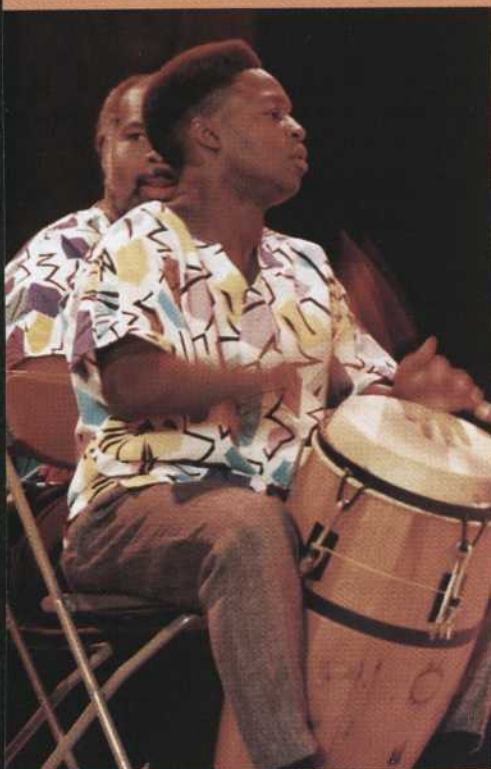

The need to celebrate is inherent to every human heart and people. To celebrate moments of joy, sadness and grief surpasses physical limits of the body and of events. Dance tears down walls of restraint, takes away tensions and conquers space. Dance, in a way, is a celebration of the unity of a person's mind and soul. It blossoms out in a note of hope for an even brighter future. Dance gives the capacity for steeping oneself in the whole of God's creation.

Since the dawn of time, men and women have created new forms of expressing and interpreting their emotions and day-to-day realities. As a festival of international folkloric dances, this Calendar 1993 invites us to join dancers from different parts of the world to appreciate the unique beauty and variety of their traditions, beliefs and customs. To the sound of music, they offer us glimpses of their cultural heritage. Let us welcome them and celebrate life!

The gift of life is given to us by God to make of it a joyful hymn to His glory. Each day bids us to enter the dance of the universe, to the rhythm of events. At times, to the tempo of a waltz or a tango; at other times, to that of a polka or of the cha cha cha. Whatever the melody, the Lord invites us to dance. In all confidence, let us place our hand in His hand and be guided by His rhythm. He is the Lord of the Dance!

If I want, I can dance my life. Should I so desire, wherever I am, I can dance with my brothers and sisters from around the world. Together, let us dance the circle of friendship.

Ma. Anthea Raso, m.i.c.

Lord, come invite us

If we were happy about You Lord,
We couldn't resist
This rage to dance which sweeps
The world,
And we would come to guess
What dance pleases you best.

To be a good dancer, with You
As elsewhere,
One need not know where it leads.
One need to follow,
There is no need to understand
The steps that it pleases you to take.
One must be as an extension of you,
Agile and lively,
And receive through you the rhythm
Of the orchestra.
One need not insist to go forward,
But accept to turn, to step sideways.
One need to know how to stop
And slide instead of walking.

Lord, come invite us.
We are ready to dance for you this errand,
These accounts, the dinner to prepare,
This evening of drowsiness.
We are ready to dance for you
The dance of work,
That of the heat, and of the cold.
If certain melodies are in minor key,
We won't consider them sad;

If others make us breathless,
We won't claim they are exhausting.
And if we are pushed about, we will laugh,
Knowing that this always happens
When dancing.

Lord, reveal to us the full orchestra
Of your designs,
Where what you allow produces
Unknown tunes
In the serenity of your will and pleasure.
Teach us to clothe each day
Our human condition
Like a ball dress,
Which will make you love us
And all its details, as indispensable gems.
Make us live our life,
Not like a game of chess
Where all is calculated,
Not like a match where all is difficult,
Not like a theorem
Which breaks one's head,
But like a feast without end
Like a dance
In the arms of your grace,
In the universal music of love.

Lord, come invite us!
