Gathering Joy Along Our Way

Photo: M. P. Sanfaçon M.I.C.

Transcending national boundaries and cultural differences, joy is a virtue shared by all humanity. Through the ages, joy has always been a distinctive mark of the human spirit that enables men and women to rise above their limitations. However, since the coming of Christ, joy has a more profound bearing which reveals the One who is its source... According to St. Paul, is it not a fruit of the Holy Spirit and an intrinsic quality of the Kingdom? (Rm 14:17)

In today's world, how still speak of joy? As we look around us, what worries and preoccupations too often appear on tense faces — faces of deceived couples, distressed parents, abused youth and ill-treated children. In this context, to speak of joy demands audacious faith, for it requires coming face to face with human suffering.

Adversities of all kinds pervade our world. Where find a deep motivation to go beyond the inherent difficulties of life? Where can a serene joy — so much sought after by our society — be drawn? Couldn't the Gospel be the 'well' where Samaritans that we are, may quench our thirst? Fr. A. Padovano writes: "We shall become Christians the day when we laugh and sing for the right reasons." Let us take note, too, that no one needs a smile as badly as the one who can no longer give a smile.

Offered to all, this joy is the portion of those who, content with God, gather it in minute daily events, in the fruits of demanding work, in the gentleness of a gathering with family and friends, in the happiness of a loving couple, or in the wondrous birth of a child. God calls us to joy unceasingly and He thus invites all nations. (Is 11:3)

Together, let us accept His invitation and walk briskly along the way of the Beatitudes of Joy. "Smile at life, it will become your friend."

Ma. Anthea Raso, M.I.C.

The Beatitudes of Joy

Happy are you who can laugh over your shortcomings; you make life less dramatic.

Happy are you who can enjoy leisure moments without making apologies; you walk in the way of wisdom.

Happy are you who take time to reflect before speaking; you will avoid many annoyances.

Happy are you who can be quiet to listen; you will discover new things.

Happy are you who face life with a good sense of humour; you will conquer varied obstacles.

Happy are you who work with enthusiasm; you will go a long way.

Happy are you who do not take life too seriously; you will be appreciated by those around you.

Happy are you who take notice of the needs of others; you will be a peacemaker and a sower of joy.

Happy are you who marvel at a smile and overlook a gloomy face; your way will bathe in sunshine.

Happy are you when you consider the attitudes of others favorably; love fills your heart.

Happy are you if you can be silent and smile when you are cut short; such is the way of the Gospel.

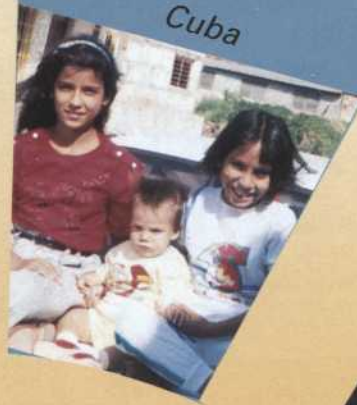

Happy are you if you can recognize the Lord in those you encounter; you have found the source of true joy.

Be joyful! (2 Co 13:11)

May the sun of our hearts radiate joy!

As God's people, are we not called to radiate the joy of being saved and to share the taste of goodness? It is in this perspective that this 1994 calendar presents the smiles of the world. May the spontaneous smiles of trustful children prompt you to thankfulness in the way of our foundress, Delia Tetreault. Hear her say: "Joy is the sun of our hearts. Let us sow it lavishly... It is still the nourishment that is most wanting in our world!"

May the God of joy bless you and may ' Our Lady of the Smile' walk hand in hand with you every day of the New Year!

"Give a bit of happiness
every day,
sow joy."

Proclaim Jesus Christ through MIC MISSION NEWS

A photograph of a woman and a young child. The woman, on the left, is wearing a wide-brimmed straw hat with a decorative band and a white collared shirt. She is looking slightly to her left with a gentle smile. The child, on the right, is wearing a white bucket hat and a blue patterned shirt. The child is looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression. They are standing in front of a brick building with white-framed windows. A small potted plant is visible in the background on the left.

Joy shared with us all year, through the MIC MISSION NEWS

Our goal:
1000 new subscriptions
This can be attained!

Warmed by your love for the missions
it will soar!

I am taking subscriptions for my children,
my grandchildren, my employees,
a person who is alone...

There! it's all set to go!

Thanks!

*Any DONATION to support
the magazine will be greatly appreciated.*

*Tax Receipt: Registration

No tax receipts are issued for subscriptions.

You wish to have more copies of this 1994 calendar?

2.00$ each (3.00$ by mail).

*Sow seeds of joy,
offer it to your loved ones.*

A gift that will last all year long!
