A Challenge, An Adventure, A Celebration

*"I came that they might have life,
and have it abundantly"
(Jn 10:10)*

Echoing Christ's deep desire, Pope John Paul II presented this message of hope to hundreds of thousands of young people gathered for the eighth World Youth Day celebration held in Denver, U.S.A., last August, 1993. As from a flowing and inexhaustible source, the Pope drew from the heart of the Gospel the words to meet the needs of young people craving for truth. This celebration of life will continue in Manila, Philippines in January, 1995.

Generosity, audacity, creativity, gratuitousness, desire for interiority and the absolute... these are what brought together young pilgrims of many nations. From every corner of the world, they came to celebrate life. They came with their questions on life's meaning and on their mission and vocation at the heart of the world and of the Church today. At the dawn of the year 2000, Christ continues to call labourers for His harvest. At whose hearts will our Lord knock to invite His chosen ones to follow Him more closely? A challenge, an adventure... why not for you?

On the occasion of the 75th anniversary of the M.I.C. Missionary Press and in anticipation of the next World Youth Day in Manila, it is to Mary, bearer of the Good News, that we confide the young people of our world. In this 1995 calendar issue, we offer you excerpts of Pope John Paul's messages to all the participants assembled in Denver. With them let us continue to joyfully celebrate Christ's gift of life, life to the full!

The World Youth Day challenges you to be fully conscious of who you are as God's dearly beloved sons and daughters... Christ's favorite words to young people are: "Fear not" (Mt. 10:31) and "Come, follow me" (Mt. 19:21). Who knows what the Lord will ask of you, young people of the Americas, young men and women from Europe, Africa, Asia and Oceania?

Life is full of mystery... Our interior gaze extends to the limitless horizons of our hopes and aspirations. And in the midst of all of life's contradictions, we search for life's true meaning. We wonder and ask Why? Why am I here? Why am I alive at all? What must I do?

Good Shepherd, teach the young people gathered here, teach the young people of the world, the meaning of "laying down" their lives through vocation and mission. Just as you sent the apostles to preach the Gospel to the ends of the earth, so now challenge the youth of the Church to carry on the vast mission of making you known to all those who have not yet heard of you! Give these young people the courage and generosity of the great missionaries of the past so that, through the witness of their faith and their solidarity with every brother and sister in need, the world may discover the Truth, the Goodness and the Beauty of the life you alone can give.

Only the Good Shepherd will lead you to the full truth about life.

Young people of the world, hear His voice! Hear His voice and follow Him!

John Paul II, Denver

"Here I am! Send me! Send us!"

From our Christian experience, we want to share with all the world's youth our desire to build a new society, a society of love. We strive to develop our personal gifts to the best of our ability so as to better serve society. We strive to serve in particular the weakest, the poorest and the most vulnerable among us. To make this a reality, we need to walk together, hand in hand, with all the youth and all the people of the world who love life.
