The Joy of a Jubilee

What a precious time to be alive as one millennium ends and another begins! As we welcome the third millennium, we experience a strong call to mark the new era in a special way, and to gather as communities of faith to pray in thanksgiving for the gift of Jesus Christ, Our Saviour. To duly celebrate this grand event, Pope John Paul II has proclaimed the Year 2000 a Great Jubilee, the year of the Lord's favour.

Signs of hope abound for this moment. At the heart of a wellspring of lively hope echoes the call of a loving God who sets us free and who pronounces as good all of creation. What a great blessing to enter more deeply into God's work in our own time! How can we possibly live thoroughly this period of grace and joy?

Living fully the joy of the Jubilee requires putting our personal life in order as well as that of society and the Church. Celebrating the Jubilee actually demands a closer relationship with God and with others. We are invited to rediscover the beauty and the authenticity of the Gospel message. We are especially called to deepen our awareness of God working in our lives.

Indeed, a new season of grace unfolds before us! May we courageously step forward, eager and prepared to face the dawning of a new era. In some way, may the pages of this Jubilee calendar give rise to new horizons of hope, helping us to remember God's creative presence in our world today. Isn't this what a Jubilee Year is all about - allowing God to work in new and wondrous ways in our lives? Let's celebrate with joyful thanksgiving! A happy and grace-filled Year 2000!

Becoming a People of Compassion

God of life, of community, of reconciliation, of compassion, we come to you today in a spirit of praise and thanksgiving.

We praise you for all of creation: the living earth entrusted to our care, and people of every race, religion, and nation.

Allow us to embrace, respect and love all you have given us.

*We praise you because all good things are given to us in love.
Help us to know and feel every day, every minute that you love us, that you trust us, that we are to live in this love.
Help us to help others to know your love.*

*We thank you for our families, our friends, our country.
Teach us to honour those who have gone before us,
to walk with our seniors, to love and protect our children,
and to foster compassion in our communities.*

*Help us to find signs of hope in moments of joy or pain or challenge.
Guide us to use our gifts of time and talent to restore and affirm all that is good, heal that which is weak, and avoid that which is sinful and destructive in life.*

*Nourish our spirits so we will be prepared to welcome the stranger, the immigrant, the refugee, the handicapped, the poor, the street person.
Unbind and set free your sons and daughters, to recognize your One Spirit in one and in all.*

Glory be to God the Creator, to Jesus the Christ, and to the Holy Spirit who dwells in our midst, now and forever. Amen

Jubilee Prayer from PROJECT MILLENNIUM, a 26-part, 1/2 hour series, presented on Vision TV by the Catholic Television group. It presents the stories of Religious Communities of Canada, describing their spiritual motivation and historical contribution to the development of the country and challenges viewers to become a people of compassion for the 21st century and beyond.
